

Moses Marion Sanders

Memoir written in 1880 in Alcorn County, Mississippi

The images on pages 2 through 6 of this pdf file are from the family records of Judge Brown Smith, a descendant of Moses Marion Sanders. Scroll down to see pages 2-6 of the images.

For further introductory material about this document, please see the home page:

Sanders of Old Tishomingo County, Mississippi

Graphics on this page are from the freeware collection of Cari Buziak.

Corinth, Miss July 6th 1860

It is to those of future generations, that this biographical sketch is intended to enlighten upon the immediate history of our family. It is natural, it is right, it is simply a prompting of the soul that inspires in a look to perpetuate the deeds of the honorable, good and noble. Such prompts me to enclose a link in the chain of chronology that will hunt down the remote source of our family to the unknown ages of the past. Whilst my mind runs back along the family pathway, through the light and shades of several generations for nearly two thousand years, I am delighted to find our distant line recorded in the records that lead from the roll of honor no stain or disgrace to mar the bright horizon of the future generations of the family, that will follow in our footsteps. Our grand father Moses Sumner was born in the early part of the 17th century. His labors were spent in agriculture as a pursuit and the plow as a profession, being a Baptist preacher. Our grand father John Robins was a merchant in Virginia. John Sumner. Our father was born in North Carolina March 2nd 1782. Our mother,

My Richardson Sanders, Daughter of John Robins was born in Virginia August 18th 1796. Her father and Mother were in North Carolina in the A.D. 11

They lived together nearly long enough to celebrate the golden wedding. Fifty years. Father lived the quiet life of an indi-pendent planter, having owned several slaves prior to the commencement of the late war. In the early days of his life he was a soldier, being engaged in the Indian war of A.D. 1812.

Alas! time with his sceptic has carried many of our family to the Tomb

Father and mother like many of their children sleep in the quiet City of the dead.
 Father died 25th August A.D. 1858 Mother 11th April 1866 Though they are gone, yet they lived to see the greater number of their children married and settled down in reasonable prosperity.

Our eldest sister Annist married William Muckler of our 2^d district
 "Thursalouiana, married A. G. Person, whose family is quite honorable. Our sister Jimmy married Joseph Gant Our sister Elizabeth married Henry Derryberry.
 Our eldest brother Joseph Rogers, never married.

He was taken prisoner by the Rebels in 1863 during late and never found again.

James Howard gave the most of his time to Agriculture and Politics. He was quite a prominent member of the general Assembly of the State of Arkansas in 1860.

He had quite a taste for mining farms and holding them.

He was a Brass Captain in the ^{war} between the States.

Joshua Harder, lived in Texas engaged in farming and stock raising. Was a brave soldier and lost his life in defence of his country in 1863.

General Holey, lived in Tennessee engaged in planting was also a brave and generous Soldier and Officer in the late war and lost his life in its service, 1864.

Erasmus Lafayette,

the youngest son, was born in Mississippi 31st May A.D. 1839. He is more inclined to a mercantile and political life than many of his fellows in many good and chivalrous deeds. One who wins at will and holds his friends with a strengthened chain. During the war he was engaged for four years, coming out with honor and sans having never missed an engagement since brought home by ^{the} cessation of war.

He married Miss Mary Pinkney Young, daughter of S. B. Young of this city in the year 1867.
 He is a prominent citizen of this city and has made well-merited reputation as an political Officer and a Correspondent Journalist.
 His family, numbers only four members, Self, Wife and two, bright, intelligent and beautiful little girls, Miss Mattie & Mary.
 Now I have given a biographical sketch of each member of the family save one the writer. Miss Marion like a rule the family has an inclination to ornately and religion.

The writer and next to the youngest and only son living except Fayette.
 Was born 25th January A.D. 1838 During his early life he was engaged in Agriculture and attending Country School in company with his bro.
 Walsey & Fayette.
 He graduated in medicine in Alabama, 1860, joined the 1st Arkansas Infantry 14 day May 1861. As it came through this town on its way to Virginia, Fayette and I soldiers & gashed the entire row, seeing three wounds each both alike held positions as officers in our command.

The writer, married Miss Elizabeth B. Buntow, daughter of Benjamin Buntow of the town, December 19 1865.

The home pleasant, little family circle with only one "in Miss Jones house" Our "dear" is in the grave,
The oldest boy Simon ~~of the family~~ a bright boy very sprightly and bids to be an eloquent orator of note.

2nd Boy Earl Buntow Devoted student of a course dedicated to refinement

3rd Boy Marcus Marion Bright, joyous and happy more mischievous than ever was, the father of his Country.

4th Edna "Our Girl", endowed with more spirit and will and equal mind to any of the boys.

5th Scout. Lena, Our "Girls in the Cold Silent Town where we will all grow arlong" 6th "Hubbie" Our Herbert the two year old pet of the family a fine, intelligent little fellow. Just beginning to keep the found name of mama.

The writer is now engaged in the practice of his profession in this City and will soon this place his future home.

I am

Respectfully Yours

W. M. Sanders M.D.