"Producing a certificate in the following words, to wit, War Department, Revolutionary Claim. I certify that in Conformity with the law of the United States of the 7th June 1832 Obadiah Hooper of Alabama who was a Private in the Army of the Revolution is entitled to receive forty dollars and fifty cents per annum during his natural life Commencing on the 4th of March 1831 and payable semi annually on the 4th of March and 4th of September in every year. Given at the War Office of the United States this fourteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty six.

Lewis Cass, Secretary of War

Examined and countersigned, J. L. Edwards, Commissioner of Pensions.

Obadiah Hooper's obituary (Film 840513 Alabama Huntsville Vol 12 Page 55-56) in the South Alabamian from Huntsville Democrat on June 29, 1839 was as follows: "Another Revolutionary Patriot gone. Died at his residence near Pickensville, Ala., on the 31st ultimo Obadiah Hooper Sr. in the 84th year of his age. Mr. Hooper was born in Lunenburg County, Va. on the 25th day of December, 1755, where he resided until the outbreak of that glorious struggle which gave us our independence. He early engaged in that struggle and was a regular soldier until the close of the war. He heard the Declaration of Independence when first read by the immortal Jefferson. He fought at the Battle of Bunker Hill. He was also at Trenton and was one of those who gave a new impulse to the cause of freedom by gaining that important battle. He was one of those who crossed the Delaware under the godlike eye of the immortal Washington to attack the British and Hessians at Princeton. Here, he has often been heard to say, the blood marked the ground as it trickled from his shoeless feet. He was at the storming of Stony Point; he was at Gates defeat and had charge of the ammunition wagons on that occasion, but blew them up to prevent them from falling into the hands of the British. He was at the memorable Siege and Battle of Yorktown and had the honor of seeing Cornwallis surrender his sword. He was likewise at the Battle of Brandywine and was wounded twice in that engagement, once from a musket ball and once from the stab of a bayonet, and there is no doubt but that the wound received on that occasion hastened somewhat his death even at this remote period...has left an affectionate wife and a large number of children and grandchildren."

The above obituary is quoted to indicate the degree of accuracy - the only true statements in the obituary relate to his place of residence, his date and place of birth and date and place of death; he was at Gates defeat and was at the siege of Yorktown where Cornwallis surrendered his sword.

"Pickensville Ala 7 Nov 1855 - Hon the Minst Laws of Pension.

Dear Sir: in the case of Sarah Hooper widow of Obediah Hooper application for bounty land under the act of March 3, 1855 No 75,770. I do not understand how the record evidence should be out of the way at this time, when it was in your office two years since. When she made application under the act of July 1855 for a pension for life which was granted her it maybe that you allow the attys to take out papers as in the common law courts if so William Hunt Esqs. made the application for the pension under the act of 1855 for Mrs. Sarah Hooper and probably did not return the muster roll of Obediah Hoopers Company of which he was a private. I am satisfied that the record is not lost but mislaid and also that the old lady is entitled to the bounty land she claims. The old lady is needy and requires all that she can get from any source. Will you please have search made for the papers and grant her warrant. Yrs. Respectfully, H. S. Shelton

Moses Sanders Sr, in his will, states the following: "Item. I give unto my daughter Sally Hooper, namely (to wit) William Sanders, Obadia, Betsey Carter, Milley and James Hooper two Negroes I before lent to my daughter Salley Hooper, and one fifth part of the residue of my Estate, Except the land to be equally divided between them, also Twenty Dollars in Cash."

Obadiah Hooper, Sarah's husband, was one of 12 children of Obediah and Massalva Hooper who lived in Lunenburgh County, Virginia. The father dated a will in Franklin County, Georgia 16 July 1800 and gave his son Obediah, "one negro girl named Jamy, the daughter of Judge." Obediah Hooper first married Sally Gates and they had eight children: Richard, John M., Lucy, Mary, Cathrine, Sally, Nancy and Clementina before the mother's death Aug 3 1801 or 1802 (Bible page torn). His second marriage was to Elizabeth Carter, born Jan 30, 1777, died Aug 31, 1803, no children.

Sally Sanders is one of the 62 members who constituted the Grove Level Baptist Church in May 1802. According to the Church Minutes of Jan 1811 Sally Hooper was censured "for getting in a wicked spirit and raising confusion in the settlement and excommunicated her for the same." The minutes of Dec 1811 read: "Sis. Sally Hooper came forward and give satisfaction to the church and was received into fellowship. The church gave her a letter of dismissal."
